

Please hold hearings. What's the rush? The American people deserve to hear an open and honest debate from all sides, and you have the time.